Re: Authorized Partner and Technical Certification for Bridgewave Products.

Dear Al Brown,

This letter is being provided to confirm that SmartWave Technologies is an authorized reseller of Bridgewave Products. SmartWave Technologies has completed the required technical certification training courses to maintain and support Bridgewave products. This technical certification includes consultation, design, installation, technical support and troubleshooting for the entire Bridgewave product line.

Additionally, SmartWave Technologies has demonstrated their commitment to quality and professionalism in the delivery of Bridgewave Solutions. BridgeWave places great value in having SmartWave Technologies as a strategic certified value-add partner since 2008. As such, this letter authorizes SmartWave Technologies to offer Bridgewave products in Australia and the surrounding region.

Sincerely,

Pete Vavra
